Where Are You on Your Climb?

A group of mountain climbers were once asked, "Why do you climb mountains?" and "What do you expect to find at the top?"

One man said, "I climb for the exercise and the thrill of victory when I reach the top. I saw, I came, and I conquered."

Another replied, "I enjoy travelling. Each mountain is different, with unique challenges to face and overcome. When I reach the summit, I feel a great sense of accomplishment. My skills overcame the dangers of the mountain."

The last man was quiet, seemed very deep in thought. After a few moments of silence, he said, "Climbing is not about you versus the mountain. It is about you verses yourself. Each step is one closer to finding out who you are and what you believe. Does my faith overcome my fear? Will my trust be in myself, or the Lord? It is letting go and allowing the Lord to guide my steps. When I reach the top of the mountain, it is there that I feel a great sense of peace and serenity. Only the Lord could paint such a beautiful sight, and I am honored he would share this view with me."

Psalm 37:23 - The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when he delights in his way.
