Adoption

During the time that the New Testament was written, when a family adopted a child, there was no immediate big celebration of that adoption.

But, when that child reached the proper age, there was a celebration, and at that time, the child was given every single legal standing as every other member of that family.

In other words, once adopted, that child became a full member of that family along with inheritable rights.

God has adopted us, and now we have every legal right to the kingdom of Heaven – if we would only know it. Most Christians do not have a clue as to how much they really have through Christ Jesus. And if they do not know it, they certainly cannot use it for their good or for God's good.

Romans 8:15-17 - For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" 16 The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, 17 and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.
