In the Secret Service

A gentleman was in front of a Preacher coming out of the church one day. The Preacher grabbed him by the hand, pulled him aside and said to him, "You need to join the Army of the Lord!" The man replied, "I'm already in the Army of the Lord, Preacher." The Preacher questioned, "How is that?" The man replied, "I'm in the Secret Service."

There is a vast difference between professing one's relationship to Christ and one demonstrating the reality of one's relationship to and faith in Christ.

Paul in writing to Titus (Titus 1:16) speaks of a group of professing Christians and says, "They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work."

What Paul is saying is that they profess to be saved, but by their lifestyle, the habitual practices of their life, their lips lie. However, their actions tell the truth about their spiritual condition.

In Hebrews 10, the Hebrew Writer presents the argument that one of the evidences of being a child of God is a love for the things of God and an active participation within the body of the family of God along with an accompanying transformation.

Many have their name on the roll of a local church but that does not mean that they are an active part of the family of God.

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. – Hebrews 10:24-25
